Skype courses

Winter 2019

Would you like to learn Modern Hebrew but do not find a course where you live? Or do you not want to travel to the course place every week?

Now you have a unique opportunity to study Hebrew right from your home! The course will take place one hour a week on Skype, a free conference program on the Internet.

Course material

In the course we use the most popular book that is used in Ulpan (Hebrew language school in Israel). It is called Ivrit min ha-Hatchala (Hebrew from Scratch), Alef. It enables you to easily start an Ulpan class in Israel and show your level. The book will be used for a few years. In addition to the book, the teachers will also provide you with other study materials.

The book might be available in a bookstore close to you. Otherwise, the book can also be purchased from the teacher, Hanna Nylund in Finland. The price is then 50 euros plus mail expenses. You can order the book from Hanna by writing her at the address hannanylund@gmail.com. You will then get an invoice by e-mail.

If you are a group you can also order the book directly from the publisher Academon in Israel. The cost of the book will then be around 36 euros plus mail expenses from Israel of around 10 euros per book, if you order at least 10 books. Address: kracd14@academonil.co.il. The book can be paid with credit card or by bank transaction. Delivery is up to 10 days.

Optional Facebook group

The courses have a common secret group on Facebook where everyone can share inspiring material and learn from each other. Joining the group is optional.
